

Street-side Raingarden A
Before Construction

Street-side Raingarden A
During Construction

A photograph of a street-side rain garden. The garden is a circular area filled with brown mulch, bordered by a black plastic liner. It is situated next to a concrete curb and a paved road. A white downspout pipe runs along the curb, with several yellow plastic bags of soil or mulch placed next to it. The background shows a grassy area and a large evergreen tree.

Street-side Rain garden A
Ready for Plants

Street-side Raingarden A
After One Year of Growth

Street-side Raingarden A
After 3 Years

Street-side Raingarden B
Before Construction

Street-side Raingarden B
After 2 Years

Street-side Raingarden C
Before Construction

Street-side Raingarden C
After One Year

Street-side Raingarden D
Before Construction

Street-side Rain Garden D
After 2 Years

Street-side Raingarden E
Before Construction

Street-side Raingarden E
After 2 Years

Street-side Raingarden F
Before Construction

Street-side Raingarden F
After One Year

